MR. AND MRS. HERBERT HEGADORN, Bath, shown above, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday. Both are life-long residents of the Odessa and Bath district.

Hegadorns of Bath Married 50 Years

By Fred B. Pense
Staff Writer

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hegadorn, Bath, were "at home" on Sunday on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The party was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wilmot Hoselton, and Mr. Hoselton. Presentations included two gold colored cushions, as well as many other gifts.

Mr. Hegadorn was born in Camden Township, Addington County on March 19, 1879. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hegadorn. Mrs. Hegadorn was born Jan. 28, 1887, and is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peters. They were married at Conway Methodist parsonage, March 5, 1902.

Mr. Hegadorn who is enjoying good health, operated the cheese factory at Link's Mills for some years. He also was farmer for a time, and has worked as a carpenter. Moving to Bath, he went into the store and bakery business. In 1942 he lost his store and residence by fire which destroyed nearly a whole business block in Bath. He later rebuilt the store and home. At the present time he and his wife operate the business. In recent summers Mr. and Mrs. Hegadorn have been residing in their new cottage near Glenora Ferry.

Speaking of old times in the

The sun sends 400,000 times as much light to the earth as does the moon, which merely reflects sunlight.

Odessa and Bath district, Mr. Hegadorn says he can well remember when his family first started to read the Daily British Whig 50 years ago. His father often used to tell him about seeing the first steam locomotive drawn by horses from Millhaven to the GTR tracks at Ernestown. The small engine was brought to Millhaven by boat.

In Mr. and Mrs. Hegadorn's family there are five children. They are Mrs. Arthur Allman, Oshawa; Arthur Hegadorn, Bath; Clarence Hegadorn, Bath; Mrs. Wilmot Hoselton, Bath; and Mrs. Donald Gallagher, Bath. There are nine grandchildren, Wilmot and Shirley Hoselton, Bath; Joyce, Joan and Jean Hegadorn, Bath; Grant, Lyle and Earl Gallagher, Bath, and Donna Allman, Oshawa.

Mr. Hegadorn has two brothers, Walter of Odessa and Archie of Westbrook. He has four sisters, Mrs. David Parks, western Ontario; Mrs. Charles Babcock, Westbrook; Mrs. Thomas Wallace, Wilton and Mrs. George Ohlman, Napanee. Mrs. Hegadorn has two sisters, Mrs. Edith Fritz, Hillier; Mrs. Lorne Clark, Oshawa, and a brother, George Peters, Oshawa.

Guests who called to extend congratulations were served cake from a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake.

Low, Wide and Handsome Are Spring Hats In Smooth Straws and Smart Satins

By Muriel Narraway

LONDON — (CP) — Low, wide and handsome is the London and Paris contour for the prettiest of spring hat styles.

Crowns are practically non-existent, brims are wider at the sides than in back and front, and materials range from the smoothest of shiny straws to the coarsest garden meshes.

From the smoothest of delicate straws with shallow brims and trimmings of big ribbon bows, twists of chiffon and loops of veiling, the fashion ranges to rough-weave models sometimes consisting of a straw brim pulled over a turban crown.

Brimms can be worn high or low at will and several different

In contrast to the shallow look there are flower-pot hats with high crowns finished by a tiny curl that merely suggests a brim. Worn low on the head, almost completely hiding the hair, they have wide ribbon trim and are finished by dangling bunches of cherries.

"Quo Vadis" hats are another London line, typical being an ancient praetorian guard helmet in gold satin with standing mount of black ostrich feathers, the visor brim beaded in black jet.

Detroit Loses
Then Wins

By The Canadian Press

DETROIT Red Wings, firmly esconced as National Hockey League champions, gave a queer exhibition of inconsistency during the weekend, losing 6-3 at Toronto and then walloping the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-1 Sunday at Detroit.

A near record crowd of 15,626 jammed Detroit Olympia for the Sunday feature.

Toronto picked up two points on its weekend showing, but still lost ground to second-place Montreal Canadiens who rallied for a 4-4 tie with the tail-end Chicago Black Hawks at home Saturday and came through with a 2-0 victory Sunday against the Rangers in New York.

In the weekend's only other tussle, Boston Bruins, playing at home, downed Chicago 4-2 Sunday to move back into a fourth-place deadlock with New York Rangers.

Saturday night at Toronto, the two clubs were tied 1-1 at the end of the first period with the Leafs holding a 3-2 lead by the finish of the middle session. Out-scoring the Wings 3-1 in the final stanza, Toronto walked off with their 6-3 victory.

* * *

Cal Gardner, Ted Kennedy, Tod Sloan, Ray Timgren, Max Bentley and Hugh Bolton divided the Maple Leaf goals while Gordie Howe, Sid Abel and Larry Zeidel scored for the Red Wings.

Sunday, the Red Wings took a 4-1 first-period edge and added singletons in the final two sessions to march away with their 6-1 win. Marcel Pronovost, Metro Prystai, Sid Abel, Red Kelly, Alex Delvecchio and Gordie Howe picked up Detroit markers with Tod Sloan spoiling Terry Sawchuk's shutout try for the Leafs' lone goal.

Howe's goal was his 41st of the season, tops in the league. He also picked up two assists to boost loop-leading point total to 75.

Easily Win
Over Navy

EDWARDS' MONARCHS, who enter OBA Intermediate 'A' play-downs shortly against as yet unknown opponents, defeated HMCS Catarqui basketball team 76-54 in an exhibition game played at Vimy, Friday night.

Monarchs' fast-breaking squad, displaying a smooth passing attack and accurate shooting, jumped into an early lead and coasted to an easy win over the less experienced Navy crew.

Monarchs' excellent passing combination and pattern play under the basket, with Don Soutter operating well from the pivot, paid off with fairly even distribution of scoring honors. Pic Rea and Dale Hartley with 15 and 16 points respectively were top men for Mon-

By The Canadian Press

CLEVELAND Barons are breathing right down the necks of the Pittsburgh Hornets, and last night's 6-2 rout of Hershey Bears put the Barons just two points behind the league-leading Hornets.

The Cleveland squad stopped St. Louis 7-2 Saturday. In other Saturday games Hershey beat Providence 6-2; Syracuse defeated Cincinnati 9-4 and Pittsburgh edged Buffalo 3-2.

The line of Ken Davies, Gerry Couture and Jerry Reid accounted for three Cleveland goals. Davies got two and Couture one while Reid had three assists. Cleveland's Steve West

On Sept. 1 a quiet wedding was solemnized in Kingston, when Minnie Pearl, younger daughter of Mr. George Hughes of Pleasant Valley was united in marriage to James W Hegadorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hegadorn of Odessa. Rev. R. Babcock, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, officiated.

Sept 12, 1931

On Wednesday evening last a very large number of people gathered at the home of the bride's father, and tendered to the newly-weds a miscellaneous shower. During the course of the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hegadorn opened the many valuable and useful gifts, which testified to the popularity of the young couple, and expressed their thanks for the same. Delicious refreshments, including the wedding cake, which was cut by the bride were served to the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hegadorn will take up residence near Odessa, where the groom is engaged in farming.
